PPE – PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT AND YOU

What is PPE?

a) Stuff to wear to make your bosses happy.
b) Last line of defense to protect one from chemical injury.
c) Particle Preparation Equipment

Why wear PPE?

a) To prevent chemical injury.
b) To make your boss happy.
c) Because it is fashionable.

What types of injuries can happen with chemicals?

a) Burns
b) Inhalation
c) Eye
d) Organ
e) All of the above

A rash can stem from chemical exposure.

a) True
b) False

First Degree burns are the most damaging of burns.

a) True
b) False

Inhalation damage can cause which of the following?

a) Bone fracture
b) Hearing loss
c) Sinus problems

Air Scrubbers are only used when PPE is not available.

a) True
b) False

OSHA prefers you to use what equipment to protect your eyes when handling liquid chemical?

a) Gloves
b) Apron
c) Safety Glasses
d) Goggles
e) Face Shield

Eye injuries include which of the following?

a) Color blindness
b) Dryness
c) Blindness
d) All of above

Personal Protective Equipment must be inspected before each use.

a) True
b) False

When do you have to wear PPE?

a) All the time
b) During hazardous operations or in hazardous areas of the workplace
c) Lunch
d) At home

What are the limitations when using PPE?

a) There are none
b) PPE is good for only 3 minutes before needing replacements
c) Depends on the PPE in question
d) All of the above

A chemical resistant glove with a small pinhole is OK to use.

a) True
b) False

Fogging is a concern of what type of PPE?

a) Safety Glasses
b) Goggles
c) Certain Respirators
d) All of the above
e) None of the above

It is OK to take used PPE home.

a) True
b) False

* Your Manager will demonstrate various uses of PPE in person.